November 13, 1924.

My dear Mr. LeCocq:

Your letter about Mrs. Judson has been read with much interest, and I cannot deny myself the pleasure of acknowledging it and thanking you for it. I have written a little letter to Mrs. Judson, as you have suggested.

Very truly yours,

A large, elegant handwritten signature in dark ink, which appears to be "Woodrow Wilson", is written over the typed name and address.
